POWER GLITCH AFFECTS LAW ENFORCEMENT TECHNOLOGY

Written by Woody Gottburg Thursday, October 03 2013 16:16

A POWER OUTAGE HAD WOODBURY COUNTY LAW ENFORCEMENT PERSONNEL FILLING OUT FORMS IN LONGHAND THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

SHERIFF DAVE DREW SAYS A BREAKER FAILED IN THE COUNTY COURTHOUSE AND KNOCKED OUT THE COMPUTERS AND TECHNOLOGY IN THE L-E-C AND IN DEPUTIES CARS:

{audio}OUTAGE.mp3{/audio}

THE SHERIFF SAYS THE POWER LOSS DID NOT AFFECT ANY OF THE DOORS IN THE COUNTY JAIL OR INMATE SECURITY:

{audio}OUTAGE1.mp3{/audio}

SIOUX CITY POLICE ALSO LOST THEIR COMPUTERS BOTH IN HOUSE AND IN OFFICERS CARS.

EMERGENCY SERVICES DIRECTOR GARY BROWN SAYS THE OUTAGE BEGAN AROUND 1:30PM, BUT TECHNICIANS HAD REPAIRS COMPLETED AND POWER RESTORED BY 4:30PM.